

Keith to perform with The Tokens in Glendale, CA 7.19.08

Part of The 15th Annual Cruise Night Car Show.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAY 28, 2008- Keith (a.k.a Bazza Keefer) will be making an appearance on stage with The Tokens at The 15th Annual Cruise Night Car Show in Glendale, CA on July 19th, 2008.

Keith will join with The Tokens as they re-create his classic 1967 hit "98.6". A song that The Tokens originally sang backup on.

Keith landed on the music charts with his first solo single "Ain't Gonna Lie," which placed in the US Top 40 charts. "98.6," Keith's best-known song and his biggest hit, was released in January 1967, charting as a top ten single. Keith charted with two other songs in 1967, "Tell Me To My Face" and "Daylight Savin Time" and recorded three albums during the 1960's.

Currently, Keith is involved in the TV Industry and continues to write and record new music.

Entertainment begins at 5:30 to 10:30 pm on Brand Boulevard in Glendale. Other bands that will be performing at The 15th Annual Cruise Night Car Show include, Peter Noone & the Herman Hermits and The Surfaris.
